Program Director – Full-Time

Stony Kill Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, that operates Stony Kill Farm Environmental Education Center, in Wappingers Falls, NY. Our work focuses on connecting people of all ages with hands-on experiences in the outdoors and small-scale farming, while fostering community through volunteerism, celebration, and preservation of historic Stony Kill Farm. Thousands of people visit the 750-acre property each year, including kids from throughout the Hudson Valley who participate in our acclaimed field trips, summer camp, homeschool, workshops, and other educational programs.

We are hiring a Program Director to manage our well-regarded outdoor education and agriculture programs. This position is well suited to someone who loves the outdoors, enjoys meeting and working with new people, has a talent for teaching and inspiring curiosity in others, and works well as part of an upbeat and dedicated team.

Responsibilities include:

- Manage all education programs including school field trips, Operation Explore, Homeschool on the Farm, Summer Explorers Camp, school break programs, partnering school programs, scout programs, adult workshops and public programs.
- Lead the development, implementation, and supervision of each program's curriculum.
- Recruit, hire, train and manage education interns, outdoor educators, and camp staff.
- Cultivate positive relationships with families, teachers, public and private schools, local organizations, state licensing authorities, and community contacts.
- Maintain program schedule and track visitor numbers for grants and reporting.
- Maintain inventory of education supplies and equipment.
- Coordinate with Office Manager for accounting of program expenses and income.
- Collaborate with staff on programming for seasonal festivals and events.
- Maintain working partnership and education scheduling coordination with Common Ground Farm.
- Contribute to social media postings, monthly e-news, and other organizational publications.
- Assist with implementing and tracking grants related to education programs.
- Attend trainings & workshops focused on outdoor education.
- Assist with general needs that arise around the farm, in the livestock barn, and in the office as part of the Stony Kill Foundation team.

Desired Qualifications:

- Background in teaching, environmental sciences, agricultural studies or related.
- Excellent leadership, communication, supervisory and team-building skills, including the ability to motivate, align staff efforts to changing priorities and approaches, set goals, delegate responsibilities, and manage education staff performance.
- Experience working with and teaching kids, from ages 4-16
- Computer skills: Microsoft Office; Google Docs; Spreadsheets; and Calendar Development
- CPR/First Aid certification a plus.
- Ability to communicate comfortably by phone, email, mail, and in person.
- Able to work outdoors in all weather conditions, with the ability to carry 30lbs.
- Able to thrive in a collaborative work environment and adapt to a changing schedule of activities.
- Ability to pass a background check.

Additional Details

- Work is on location at Stony Kill Farm Environmental Education Center in Wappingers Falls, NY.
- Primarily weekday work schedule with some scheduling flexibility. Periodic weekend and evening work when required during seasonal festivals or weekend programs with flex-time encouraged.
- This non-exempt position is full time (37.5 hours/week) with a salary range of $47,000-50,000/year.
- This position is eligible for health insurance coverage (Bronze-Level through NYS Health Marketplace), in addition to parental leave, paid holidays, vacation, sick, and personal days.

COVID-19 Considerations:

We are following the most current guidance from New York State and the CDC to protect our staff and visitors. All staff are required to provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination prior to start date.
